REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

EASTERN DISTRICT

H. G. HUMPHREY, Superintendent

Bishop and Brethren:

Through the good and gracious providence of God, I am able to present a report of my second year's work as superintendent of the Eastern District.

It has been a year of the hardest work I have ever done in my life. With a growing knowledge of the field, I have seen more to be done. My report will not deal primarily with statistics. Our pastors will present those at the proper time. I am confident the District will show an increase in World

Service giving, increased and deepened interest in Gooding College, increase in membership, and increase in the actual services rendered on our fields.

We have had to work harder even to hold our own this year.

While it is always an honor to be able to report here on the Conference floor "All ministerial claims met in full," meaning that prorated salaries are paid, it seems vastly more to interpret that historic expression to mean that all claims on us as ministers for faithful preaching of the whole gospel, visiting the fatherless and widows in their affliction, making full proof of our ministry, doing the work of evangelists, in all things commending ourselves as ministers of God in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distress, in labors, in fasting; by pureness, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned. . . . If, after taking a straight, open-eyed, heart-searching look into the mirror of God's word and paragraph 231 of our Methodist discipline outlining the duties of a minister, we can report all claims met in full, it will be more wholesome and illuminating and satisfying to God than our having each year to face a sort of annual ecclesiastical adding machine to tabulate the results of our ministry. When the prophet Elijah once reported a large decrease in Jehovah worshippers he had his statistics muddled to the extent of nearly 6999. Maybe these were on the inactive list, but the Lord counted them.

When we report the changes in our membership, I wish we could report the internal, spiritual, heart changes within our membership as to their attitudes toward stewardship, world needs, and pentecostal efficiency—a report of the district membership growth in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, of their approach to the beauty of holiness, the loving sacrificial service rendered to our communities, this would be well worth while.

I am happy in believing that our pastors have been faithful, diligent, and earnestly endeavoring to fulfill their ministry.

Revival services, including those special lenten services preceding Easter, have been held in nearly every church on the district. I have shared in these at least one week in four of these meetings.

Our Rally Day offerings increased from $85.45 last year to $276.91 this year.

We have two weeks of intensive promotion of religious education under the leadership of Dr. Edgar J. Purdy, loaned to us from the Portland Area. We visited eighteen charges in this team work. We want our full share of C. L. Clifford's time on this District this coming year.

An increase of several thousand dollars in repairs over last year, largely through the work of our Ladies' Aid societies, will be tabulated. New roofs, rooms, stoves, furnaces, furniture, and new equipment have been added in our charges.

The completion and equipping of our new church auditorium at Buhl adds one of the best church buildings in the conference. A property now valued at $42,000 was dedicated March 16 by Bishop Brown. This church, through its pastor and membership, together with the citizens of Buhl, extends an invitation to this conference to hold its next annual session in this splendid new church.

A glance at our several charges will be in order.

Aberdeen last year asked to be left without a pastor in order to enter a federation with the Presbyterian church. This move was premature and unadvised, and did not become effective, so in January we secured the services of Reverend Henry Van Valkenburg as pastor. The church quickly regained its stride and became a busy, growing, happy organization. These eight months have shown remodeling of their building, refurnishing of the parsonage, reorganization of the Epworth League, and an increase in salary for the next year.

American Falls has held its own in steady, quiet, constructive growth. There is a deepening love for Brother Fryer, their pastor.

Ashton is the largest parish in the conference. We have the sole responsibility for a territory covering much of four counties. Our pastor, Reverend J. J. Fleming, reaches this widely scattered people with unselfish, untiring ministry. This parish has latent possibilities of new circuits within it, when we find mission funds to develop them. A week-day school of religion has met with favor on this charge.

Berger Circuit is well cared for by Brother Helman, in addition to his work in Filer.

Blackfoot has rejoiced in the leadership of their pastor, Reverend Joyce Kendall and his new wife. More room and added equipment for the growing Sunday School and the recreational life of a fine group of young people is contemplated. In addition to his work at Blackfoot, Brother Kendall has held regular services at Pingree, McCammon, and Lava Hot Springs.

Burley is now enthusiastically and squarely backing the leadership of their new pastor, Reverend Charles E. Reed, who, on July 15, was transferred from Liberty, Indiana to Burley in even exchange with Reverend Valentine Deich. Both pastors and everybody are happy.

Castleford has been efficiently served by Miss Eva Brown as supply pastor since January 1. Her careful, tactful, thoroughly Christian work among our Juniors and young people meets hearty approval among all the people of that section.

Fairfield was served by Miss Maebelle Twiss as supply pastor until last November. In February, Reverend J. H. Dill was secured for this vacancy. He has had excellent constructive and sacrificial work in this isolated field. He will request admission membership in this conference.

Filer church is now unable to care for its growing Sunday School. A new addition to the church must be built in the near future. A new entrance to the basement, new furnace, and an ingathering of new members has marked this conference year.

Glenns Ferry church has held its own in spite of the town's loss of population through a shift of railroad activity from this point. We are thankful for Brother Allison's recovery from a serious sickness during this year.

In Gooding Brother H. G. McCallister closes an eight-year pastorate of real achievement with an increase in World Service, in membership, and a $300 increase in salary for next year. Every detail of the life of this church has felt the steady influence of Brother McCallister's ministry.

Hagerman has had the full-time ministry this year of Reverend J. E. Officer. The Methodist constituency at this point is limited, and Hagerman must become a part of the Gooding circuit for next year.

Hansen paid off an embarrassing note this year. Our small group of Methodist leaders at this point give hearty commendation of the high type of spiritual ministry given by their pastor, Reverend B. F. Meredith.

Idaho Falls has closed one of the greatest years of its busy life. In its organized activities this church leads the District. Brother White has preached at Shelley in addition to his regular work, making a heavy drain on both time and energy. Shelley now asks for a full-time resident pastor next year. Idaho Falls insists on keeping Brother White and all his time at their own church.

Jerome will report the best year in the history of the church, with an increase of seventy-six members, sustained attendance, increase in World Service, and enthusiasm right through the summer session, and $300 increase in salary for next year.

Kimberly has had its best year in growth of membership, World Service, and Advocate subscription. A well organized campaign of personal evangelism brought fine results from this charge. The unique plan of having the farmer members contribute the proceeds of one acre, and the business men an equivalent amount toward a new parsonage is now under way. Doubtless their pastor prays for large crops and good prices.

Mackay was served from November 1929 to July by Mrs. Rose Kendall Burleigh. This mining town needs mission funds sufficient to keep a pastor the full year.

Montpelier was served from last September to July 13 by Bertram E. Hall, as supply pastor. This town of twenty-six hundred population, seventy-five per cent Mormon, asks for a full-time pastor next year. The Sunday Schools of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches combined, but this resulted in no increase in total attendance. Our people need to learn how to practice the tie that binds as well as to sing of it.

Murtaugh has been supplied by C. H. Ronk as part-time pastor. The Epworth League, now about one year old, is succeeding especially well at this point.

Pocatello has made a substantial payment, $1700, on its debt, and made extensive repairs. This church ministers each week to many strangers and through its many organizations is a veritable beehive of activity. The pastor, Reverend Joseph Chester, expects to add another duty next year, that of teaching Bible in the Southern Branch of the State University, thus making closer contact with the growing number of college students. This church has one of the best Sunday Schools on the District. A children's worship hour is continued through the eleven o'clock service for children of pre-school age. The Methodist Men's Brotherhood at this church is especially effective in boosting our church.

Paul is attached to the Rupert charge and constitutes a problem to the Rupert pastor, as it will not have an afternoon service.

Richfield maintains a growing Sunday School and crowded house at the morning service. Pastor George R. Archer and his people have heroically continued this year's work in the face of a second season of drouth. When the new Gooding Canal is finished, it will release more water from Wood River for irrigation around Richfield, and that church will have a new lease on life. Our duty as a church is to stay by this field with larger missionary assistance.

Rupert began this year with a brand-new pastor imported from North Dakota. He has made good in every way and has added strength to our Conference. Rupert is making elaborate plans for the celebration of its twenty-fifth anniversary next October and may launch a project for additional room on that occasion.

Salmon has been supplied during this year by Reverend J. H. Bennett who came to us from Iowa. Revival services, Daily Vacation Bible School, and extensive visiting up and down the Lemhi Valley have helped keep this struggling church alive.

Twin Falls has maintained its leadership of the southern Snake River Valley. The pastor, Brother Cecil F. Ristow, has answered many calls for outside assistance by other churches and other organizations. Its budget of nearly $12,000 has been more than met. Real progress is being made in its Men's Brotherhood, its Young People's work, and its wide ministry of missionary giving.

Wendell has had a happy year. The whole town helped the pastor and his wife celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. On account of its size the Men's Bible Class is compelled to meet in the City Hall. A new church is imperative at this point.

During this year, four additional Men's Brotherhoods have been started. The number of Daily Vacation Bible Schools has more than doubled. The Wood River Epworth League Institute had its finest, strongest courses of study presented to three hundred and fifty young people.

The Protestant population of southern Idaho can not be said to be growing rapidly. Where our people move out a Mormon family moves in. Our God-given mission of leavening all life about us with spirituality, experimental religion, sound orthodox teaching, and genuine righteousness was never more needed than now. Toward the fulfillment of every duty laid upon us we have labored together as superintendent, pastors, and people with a growing spirit of co-operation and a deepening Christian friendship.

A re-emphasis on lay activities teaming up for evangelism and conducting of services for small outlying groups unable to get to our larger centers would train some fine workers and help build up some larger parishes.

WESTERN DISTRICT

Bishop Welch and Brethren:

For the sixth time, it is my privilege to give an account of my stewardship as District Superintendent of the Western District of what was formerly the Inter-Mountain Conference, now the Idaho Conference. This year has been both long and short; long because so much has occurred that in retrospect it seems hardly possible that all has been within one year; short, because the events and interests have followed each other so rapidly. There has been the constant press of duty until the closing quarterly conference had to be compressed within five weeks, and the annual conference is here before we are aware of how time flies. In many ways this has been a fruitful and a happy year, though fraught with anxieties and deep demands on our faith.

VITAL STATISTICS.

During the year our ranks have been invaded by the Messenger of Death, and our faithful and beloved brothers, V. E. Hall, Pastor of La Grande, and W. A. Winters, Pastor at Baker, both passed suddenly from this life to the life beyond the vale. A week ago I received word of the death at Los Angeles, California, of Brother John T. Carson, who has been in ill health for several years. Suitable memorials were read at the memorial services. Reverend W. B. Stanley, a local preacher, father of Mrs. N. E. Hershey died in May at Notus, Idaho. On August 5 Andrew Blokland, father of Miss Josie Blokland, our pastor at Nyssa was killed by lightning on his farm in Grande Ronde Valley.

Early in the conference year M. H. Fox was severely injured in a fall of six hundred feet down a canyon and as a result of the injuries has been able to give only a part of the year to the work on his large circuit. He is the only preacher on the District who has read his own obituary.

C. M. Knight had a physical breakdown and has been able to give only a few months to the work at Emmett. He is asking for the supernumerary relationship. The people at Emmett have been loyal and, under the leadership of H. W. Hollar, a local preacher, have carried on the work of the church.

Dr. W. W. Van Dusen on account of ill health had to give up the work at Eagle and is at his home in Boise. He is very feeble.

Mrs. W. B. Young, the wife of the pastor at Boise First Church, had a severe major operation, but is now on the road to recovery.

N. H. Lines, the pastor at Ontario, was taken suddenly ill early in the summer and only last Sunday was able to return to the pulpit.

A baby girl came to brighten the life of the parsonage home of Brother and Sister Smutz at Joseph, and a baby boy to the parsonage home of Brother and Sister Floyd White at New Meadows.

H. I. Hanson, on account of age, will retire at this session of the Conference. May Brother and Sister Hanson have many years of well-earned rest.

MATERIAL STATISTICS.

The corner stone of the new Church at Harper was laid last November. Harper is a town on the new Owyhee Irrigation Project. Seventy-five per cent of the people have come to this tract since last fall. Water was turned into the canals on March 1. Work on the church has been delayed on account of finances, weather, and the failure of the bank, but the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has come to the relief with a loan, and the church will soon be finished. There are people on this tract who have been waiting for years for water and whose children have never seen the inside of a church building. Services in the past have been held in the school house.

Nyssa has improved the parsonage property by the addition of two rooms in order to take care of the deaconesses' home. North Powder has added a kitchen to the church plant. Improvements have been made on the church property at Fruitland, John Day, Boise Immanuel, and Nampa.

Payette, North Powder, Collister, Union, Baker, and Kuna have improved both church and parsonage property. The parsonage properties at Huntington, Prairie City, Joseph, Canyon City, and La Grande have been repaired, repainted, and redecorated. Southside Boulevard and Melba improved their church property by the addition of new seats and pianos.

Year after year an increased interest is manifested in the work of Gooding College.

The interest of World Service has been faithfully presented; each month of the year has shown an increase in the contributions to World Service over the same month of the previous year, and I am hoping the pastors have brought enough money to Conference to make an increase for the year. Rally Day offerings increased threefold.

There is an increase in the number of subscribers to the Christian Advocate, Pacific edition. There are two hundred and seventy-seven subscribers to the Area Messenger. This is more than the goal set by Bishop Brown for the District.

Veterans' Day was observed in all the churches, many pastors exchanging pulpits.

Six interdenominational Daily Vacation Bible schools were held within the bounds of the District in which our church participated. The observance of Pentecost was for the most part carried out. Evangelistic appeals, special services, and personal visitations were used to get the gospel message into the minds and hearts of our membership and constituency.

The women of the District have always valued the Church and have been appreciative of the spiritual riches of life. They have been tireless in church school, Ladies' Aid, missionary societies, and every department of the Church. The Ladies' Aid Societies are well organized in each Church on the District. They assist in creating an atmosphere in which successful undertakings are carried out and they help to put them over. They have made a multitude of calls in the interest of the Church. They have fostered the social life besides raising a large amount of money. If it were not for these devoted women in some places the church would be unable to carry on.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies continue to give to their members information about their lines of work and to get money for home and foreign missions.

DISTRICT MEETINGS.

At the beginning of this conference year, group meetings were held at La Grande, Payette, and Nampa. Twenty-eight preachers in all attended these gatherings. The work of the entire conference year was carefully considered and discussed. These meetings were in the nature of spiritual retreats. Others who took part in these meetings were Doctor C. W. Tenney of Gooding College; Doctor H. W. Parker who presented the Veterans' cause, and Doctor Edward Laird Mills of the Christian Advocate, Pacific edition. Each group was organized to help carry on the work of the year, especially the work of Veterans' Day and evangelism.

The Board of Foreign Missions sent a cultivation team consisting of Doctor Musser and Doctor Edwards of India, and Doctor Gates of Africa, and Doctor Gilbert who represented the World Service Commission. They visited in all twelve churches.

One of the most notable gatherings of the year was the Men's Council which was held under the leadership of Dr. Bert E. Smith of the Methodist Brotherhood. He brought to the District a team composed of Doctor Marcellus B. Fuller of Cleveland, Ohio; Doctor Lorenzo H. King, Editor of the Christian Advocate, Southwestern Edition; Doctor W. B. Hollingshead of the World Service Commission; Doctor I. G. Paulsen of the Board of Education, and the Metropolitan Gospel Singer, Mario Capelli. The local laymen who took part were Laurel Elam and H. J. Roan of Boise and Harry McHose of Nampa. The laymen who attended this gathering of men caught a new vision of the possibilities and responsibilities of members of the kingdom of God. On account of the great distances the District has been divided into three groups with a vice president in each group, who is to push forward the brotherhood work of the church.

District Conference was held the day previous to the Men's Council. Bishop Wallace E. Brown was present at the Conference and gave the evening address.

The Boise Valley Mid-Year Institute was held at Kuna in February. It was attended by a very enthusiastic group of young people and has resulted in an increased interest in the work of the leagues of the valley.

The Epworth League Summer Institute held at Wallowa Lake (where the Leagues of the District own one hundred acres of as fine a camp sight as lies out of doors anywhere) was a remarkable success this year. While the registration was a little below that of the previous year the class attendance was better than ever before. There was an average of one hundred and eighty-two young people every morning at Morning Watch worship hour. One hundred and eighty-six took communion on Sunday morning. This was a consecration service to more loyalty to Jesus Christ and His standards of life. No finer group of young people can be found anywhere than those who abide within the bounds of the Western District. They need our sympathy and our prayers and our encouragement and a better standard of Christian conduct on our part to help them over the critical period of our modern life. The success of this Institute is due largely to the Dean, C. O. Heath, the Dean of Women, Mrs. E. A. Pollock, and the business managers, H. K. Wallis and E. A. Pollock, and the fine co-operation of the pastors. Some of the pastors, however, do not seem to realize the possibilities for their young people in these summer assemblies.

A pastor's summer school of religious education was held at Wallowa Lake at the same time as the Summer Institute.

I shall not attempt to mention in this report the name of every pastor in this District, but this much I must say; with a few exceptions, there can not be found anywhere in all the church a more loyal, faithful, and co-operating company of fellow workers than the men and women of the Western District.

Personally, I have carried out the provision of the Discipline as called for in Section 238-10.

I have visited every church on the District and conducted all the quarterly conferences of the year. Have preached twice and often three times every Sunday and many times during the week. One Sunday I preached three times, reorganized two churches and conducted four quarterly conferences. With the assistance of V. E. Hall, C. O. Heath, Alice Payne, G. G. Roseberry, and H. C. Kohr, I conducted standard teacher-training classes at Nyssa, Apple Valley, Southside Boulevard, Payette, Prairie City, John Day, Ontario, Island City, and the Montour Circuit. This took nine weeks of the year. We were unable to answer all requests for this kind of work. I attended the Religious Education Seminar at Helena, also the coaching conference at Gooding. During the year I attended two meetings of the Book Committee; had charge of five funerals; conducted the Morning Watch services at Wallowa Lake Institute; had charge of the Passion Week services at Emmett, receiving into the church on Easter Morning fourteen young people. I baptised two children and twelve adults, three of whom were immersed. I have given many special addresses and spoken at most of the fourth quarterly conferences on how to make better use of the quarterly conference committees.

And now, Bishop Welch, I have come to the end of my term as leader of Methodism on this District. At the close of this Conference I will hand back to you the responsibility with which Bishop Smith intrusted me six years ago. At the close of that Gooding Conference, I promised my Master that I would give myself with unstinted devotion to the work of Christ and His Church. Nothing has allured me from that promise. The District has ever been first in my thinking and planning. With what success I must leave to the considerate judgment of the people among whom I have worked. I have tried to carry a spirit of joy and optimism with me. I have never preached a gospel of doubt, nor of uncertainty, nor of intellectual conflict, but have ever endeavored to hold up Jesus Christ and His Kingdom and His ultimate triumph in the affairs of life.

For the wonderful hospitality of parsonage homes and families and the homes of the laymen, and for the innumerable kindnesses and courtesies on the part of ministers and laymen, and for the fine fellowship and the privileges of sharing in the life which is beginning here but does not pass away, I am deeply grateful.

*"O Love that wilt not let me go,
I rest my weary soul in thee;
I give thee back the life I owe,
That in thine ocean depths its flow
May richer, fuller be."*

I still believe as I did at the General Conference in 1924 in the time limit for the District Superintendent. I go back to the pastorate happy in the thought that I may have many more years to dedicate to Him who has been with me every step of the way. All Hail, my brothers, and be of Good Cheer! Let us carry on.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES AND CONFERENCE BOARDS

COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

We desire to reaffirm our conviction of the exceeding importance of the work of religious education, both as a means of leading men to Christ and as a means of producing intelligent Christians.

If the process of religious education is to be carried on efficiently in our churches, we must have a trained leadership. To that end we call upon our ministers to make use of the best books available in their personal, local, and state libraries in order to increase their efficiency as leaders in their own parishes. We urge the fullest possible use of the leadership Training Courses provided by the Board of Education for training lay leaders.

We appreciate the appointment of the Reverend C. L. Clifford as Director of Religious Education for the Helena Area, and we pledge him our heartiest support. We have need for our full share of his services.

We call upon our ministers to make the most effective use possible of Rally Day and Rally Week as a time to launch the year's program in church and church school.

We wish to lay special emphasis upon the Rally Day Offering, which will come back to us to make possible our Area Program of Religious Education, and for which our churches will receive full World Service credit. We suggest ten cents per capita of the full enrollment of our church schools as a minimum goal.

We nominate as members of the Helena Area Commission on Religious Education to represent the Idaho Conference H. G. Humphrey, C. O. Heath, and W. O. Cotton.

C. O. HEATH,
H. S. HAMILTON,
H. J. ROAN.

EVANGELISM.

Believing that our church needs and must have a spiritual awakening if it is to meet the present-day challenge, and believing that the minister is the recognized leader in spiritual things, we therefore urge a careful examination into our own hearts and lives to see if there is that in us that might hinder the spirit's work. We need not expect a spiritual membership unless we have a spirit-filled ministry. We believe the words of the Master when He said, "Without me ye can do nothing." And we also believe the apostle Paul when he said, "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me."

We further believe, that if we are to do the work of evangelists, making full proof of our ministry, our preaching must be such as will reach the heart as well as the intellect. Head religion alone is not enough to bring about this spiritual awakening. Jesus said, "Feed my sheep," and, brethren, we cannot give to others that which we ourselves do not possess.

Therefore, for our own sake, and for the sake of the cause we love, let this year be one of much personal heart searching and prayer on the part of each and every minister of this Conference.

A. F. GRISSOM,
N. H. LINES.

BIBLE

Since the Bible is believed by us (as a Church) to contain the Word of God and to convey the message of good will to men, and since by its interpretation we come to understand its principles to involve a system of higher living as practiced by our Lord and Master,

We therefore recommend that the custom of reading it be more generally practiced, that by this exercise our people may become more thoroughly acquainted with its teaching.

CHARLES D. FLETCHER,
GEO. G. ROSEBERRY,
M. H. FOX.

THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Christian leaders call attention to the fact that the Church is facing another period of crisis. The critics of the Church are asking the question, "Is the Church big enough, is it powerful enough to solve the problems and answer the questions pressing upon the mind and heart of humanity?" In the words of Dr. Fulkerson, "the time of nominal Christianity is passed or rapidly passing." The Christianity that the world is calling for and which it must have if it is to be saved, is a Christianity not of theory, but a Christianity with the Living Christ at the center expressing Himself in the life and activity and service of a sacrificial and spiritual Church. The Church of God is more than an institution. It is the Light of God and the Power of God organized to interpret Jesus to the world. The great social and moral questions of the hour can be solved, the evils which lie at the heart of society can be rectified by a Spirit-filled Church.

It is the work of the minister to seek for himself this Spirit-filled life and, having become the possessor of it, to interpret Jesus to others. We urge the ministers and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church to heroic living, to undivided loyalty, to consecration and devotion. John Wesley's heart was "strangely warmed" before Methodism was born. A like experience must be ours.

VICTOR PHILLIPS,
CHARLES M. REED,
W. W. DEAL.

We, the Committee on Institutions of the Conference Board of Education, express our appreciation of the response of our people for the designated gifts to Gooding College, especially to Nardin Park Church, Detroit, Michigan, which furnished $2500 in designated gifts through the influence of Bishop Nicholson and the pastor, Reverend George Nuckols. We commend the plan of completing early in the conference year the canvass for the local budget and stressing the privilege of designating gifts for Gooding College with full World Service credit.

We nominate for trustees for the class of 1933, the Superintendent of Western District, W. W. Van Dusen, Mrs. C. E. B. Roberts, and A. I. McMahon to serve with H. S. Hamilton and Mrs. Frank R. Gooding, elected by the Board of Trustees. We also nominate W. B. Young, H. G. McCallister, and A. C. DeMary as commissioners from this Conference to meet with like commissioners from the Oregon and Pacific Northwest Conferences to consider a theological seminary for the western coast.

H. G. HUMPHREY,
MRS. B. F. MEREDITH,
W. H. HERTZOG,
C. W. TENNEY,

GRADUATE COURSE OF STUDY

The period through which we are passing is one of transition and readjustment. There are complex economic, social, and religious problems. Such a period calls for a ministry well informed and adequately trained. To provide such training our Church now has a graduate course of study that may be pursued through correspondence. Your Board of Ministerial Training heartily recommends the enrollment of the members of this Conference in this course, especially since this means a maximum of opportunity at a minimum of expense.

PERIODICALS.

We are proud of our Methodist Book Concern, its Portland Depository, our Pacific Edition of the Christian Advocate, our Book Committees, and our able representatives who have put the Methodist reading life of the Northwest on a constructive basis.

For the coming year, we pledge anew our most hearty co-operation in the following ways:

(1) By purchasing the books that will make and keep us strong and virile preachers.

(2) By ordering our Sunday School and other supplies from our home branch of the Methodist Book Concern.

(3) By an earnest effort to present the Advocate to our church membership and reach a goal of at least one in every ten Methodists before Thanksgiving, in order to secure at least one in ten of our membership as subscribers.

(4) By quoting from its best articles in the pulpit, in the home, on the street, and in the office until a taste for clean, inspirational, Christian literature is created and maintained.

E. L. WHITE, Chairman,
J. D. GILLILAN.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, the forty-seventh session of the Idaho Conference has just been held in Weiser, Idaho,

Be It Resolved, That we, the members of said Conference express our appreciation for the splendid co-operation of the Methodist, Christian, and Baptist churches who ministered to our needs so completely.

We desire to express our appreciation of the gracious hospitality of the Reverend C. A. Quinn, Mrs. Quinn, and Miss Marion Quinn.

We thank the pastors, people, students, and other folks who provided for the inspirational services, the luncheons, the beautiful flowers, the hospitable entertainment, the splendid music, the constructive publicity, the fine fellowship, and the transportation courtesies.

We gratefully remember the straightforward welcome of Senator D. L. Carter, the splendid inspirational addresses of Doctor Wilbert Dowson, and the helpful messages given by Doctors Cox, Mills, Jeffries, Fulkerson, and Wilson, Messrs. Roan, Stewart, and Brauer, and Miss Bartlett.

Last and longest will we remember the fellowship of Bishop and Mrs. Welch, who won the hearts of all with their democratic sympathy and co-operation that gave every pastor and layman a hearing and a consideration. God bless them and their trip to the lands they have served so well; give them health, strength, and many more years of service.

In view of the fact that the laymen meet with us, we ask that our Bishop Brown be appointed to preside at the sessions of the Idaho Conference next year, and once again we express to him and his good wife our appreciation for their sacrificial service and pledge to them anew our loyalty, love, and heartiest co-operation.

C. W. TENNEY,
E. L. WHITE,
C. F. RISTOW.

LORD'S DAY OBSERVANCE

The idea of Jesus that the Lord's Day was made for man has not changed during the ages. Jesus recognized the human soul above this institution.

We deplore the willful misuse of this sacred day by the lack of Christian ministry to folk deprived of church attendance. We further deplore the commercialization of this day by church people.

We recommend that Christian folk preach the doctrine of the Lord's Day by example as well as by word. May we, as ministers of the Word of God, refrain from making purchases on the Lord's Day, that could be procured the day before or the day after.

DR. W. B. YOUNG,
J. E. OFFICER,
CARL M. DAVIDSON.

TEMPERANCE.

We are greatly encouraged by the aggressive leadership of our Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals in meeting the onslaughts of the enemy by furnishing through its clip sheeting, a publicity agency unexcelled by anything on either side in sending the voice to every preacher in our church as the agent of the cause which keeps us informed about the important movements.

We congratulate Doctor Clarence True Wilson and the Board on the erection of the Methodist Building in Washington and are glad to report that the plans are now adopted for the doubling of the size of this strategic structure. This is evidently his answer to the wet propaganda which objects to the Methodist's having a building in Washington.

We congratulate the dry forces on the way they conducted the hearing before the Lower House of Congress more than answering all that the wets alleged and that our Board came out of the lobby investigations without the smell of fire upon its garments.

We renew our pledge of co-operative support to the Anti-Saloon League, and record our very deep appreciation of the able support given the cause of temperance by Dr. Edward Laird Mills, Editor of the Pacific edition of the Christian Advocate.

MINUTES OF METHODIST BOARD OF HOSPITALS, HOMES, AND DEACONESSSES' WORK—IDAHO CONFERENCE.

The Board met in regular session August 22, 1930, Reverend H. W. Parker in the chair.

The required papers and credentials for probation were examined for Maude E. Cone, and upon motion of G. W. Barnes, she was accepted as probationary deaconess.

The characters of Maude E. Cone, Alice Payne, and Josie Blokland were passed and they were recommended for appointment.

The character of Mabel A. Aubin was passed and she was granted a year's leave of absence on account of illness.

H. W. PARKER, Chairman,
JOSIE J. BLOKLAND, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' ENDOWMENT COMMISSION OF THE IDAHO CONFERENCE FOR THE YEAR 1929-1930.

Your Commission is glad to report that in spite of depressing financial conditions, the campaign for endowment has been put in operation with some degree of success.

Our treasurer, Dr. Van Dusen, was taken sick early in January and was repeatedly taken to the hospital and back to his home; however, he carried on as treasurer until May, when upon his repeated suggestion that he be relieved, G. W. Barnes was elected assistant secretary-treasurer.

We report the same as last year in regard to the $1920 which has been in the hands of a receiver; we have received nothing on this account during the year, and it is still in the slow process of settlement.

The report follows:

Cash reported last Conference	$1158.00
Received from H. W. Parker and others	3685.00
Veterans' Day Offerings	605.61

Board of Pensions and Relief (Exp. Fund)	300.00
Cash from the Publicity Fund	14.95
Interest from the Publicity Fund53
Paid to H. W. Parker, salary and expenses	$1677.71
To Wm. M. Jeffers, Expenses	90.70
To Mrs. O. F. Bacon, Our Annuitant, Interest.....	112.77
To W. W. Van Dusen, Expenses	11.25
To Board of Pensions and Relief (Investment)	200.00
Present Balance in the bank	668.18
Miscellaneous	4.17

In addition to the above there is an old loan from the publicity fund in the form of a note for $29.35 bearing 8 per cent interest which will fall due January 1, 1931.

We congratulate the Conference upon its selection as field secretary of H. W. Parker, who is soliciting for $100,000 on endowment. The Commission believes that he has especial adaptability and qualifications for this kind of work. Considering the present condition of financial depression the Commission thinks he has done exceptionally well. He devoted his entire time for about seven and one-half months and was not on salary during time spent out of the Conference, nor was there any charge for office or secretarial expense.

The tabulated results are:

Cash paid on subscription	$ 3,685.69
Unpaid subscriptions	10,648.66
Estate Notes	750.00
Deeded property value	5,000.00
Total	$20,019.35

We are particularly grateful to the Board of Pensions and Relief for its cash contribution of $300 toward carrying on our campaign, and for the services of Wm. M. Jeffers whom they furnished us for a month to help Dr. Parker in the campaign. We also thank them for their pledge of like assistance for another year.

It is our thought that the present plan of solicitation should be continued for another conference year in the hope that our field secretary may be able to complete the visitation of every charge in the District.

Veterans' Day observance is a mandatory requirement of the discipline. We call upon the district superintendents to co-operate with the pastors in every way in the observance of Veterans' Day, and to ask at each first and fourth quarterly conference if Veterans' Day will be or has been observed. Veterans' Day shall be observed as far as possible on the Sunday just preceding the National Thanksgiving Day and the offering shall be devoted toward paying the salary of our field secretary.

We agree to co-operate heartily with our field secretary and we will open our pulpits and our charges to him when he comes to us.

We nominate H. G. McCallister to fill out the unexpired term of Brother V. E. Hall as a member of this Commission. As members of the Commission for the class of 1933 we nominate C. E. Helman, H. W. Parker, L. W. Thrailkill, and J. C. Wingert.

All money for the Conference Claimants' Commission should be sent to Dr. H. W. Parker at Twin Falls, Idaho.

WM. J. LUSCOMBE,
Chairman.
GEO. W. BARNES,

CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER.

I. The Conference shall meet at 8:30 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12:00 noon. Devotional services shall be held during the first thirty minutes.

II. All Standing Committees shall be nominated by a committee on Standing Committees, and elected by the Conference, and the list for the next session of the Conference shall be printed in the Journal of the Conference electing them. MEMOIRS

JOHN T. CARSON

John T. Carson was born March 17, 1877 in Ohio County, Kentucky and died at Los Angeles, California, August 19, 1930, age 53 years. He was married on October 21, 1903 to Maud L. Draper. To this union were born five children, two of which died in infancy. There are left to mourn his death the widow and two daughters, Ruth and Helen, and one son, Walter.

After serving several churches in Colorado and Oklahoma he came to the Idaho Conference in the fall of 1924 and was stationed at Joseph, where in his second year he was compelled to give up the work on account of heart trouble, brought on by some severe exertion in a high altitude.

He took a year's leave of absence, going to a low altitude expecting to regain his health but was later compelled to take a supernumerary relation. A year ago last July he returned to eastern Oregon but was compelled again to seek a low altitude. While in California he served as a supply preacher at Cahuenga Park and Alpaugh.

He made a brave fight but kept the faith and now has passed on to his reward.

W. A. WINTERS

The Reverend W. A. Winters, father of Mrs. Claude Cooper, Ray and Ralph Winters, of this city, and widely known over the valley, was found dead in his church, the Methodist Episcopal Church at Baker, last evening at about eight o'clock. The shocking news was received by the children shortly after eight, and the son, Ralph, and Mrs. Cooper immediately went to Baker. Other members of the family left this morning.

So far as his friends in La Grande are aware, Mr. Winters had been in his usual health. He had been working very hard in the new charge to which he had been sent only about two months ago, and was at present engaged in a series of revival meetings. As a Methodist minister he had served many of the churches in eastern Oregon, had lived in La Grande while he was serving as district superintendent, and had moved to Cove at the beginning of the conference year, to be transferred later to the Baker charge.

Besides his widow, Mr. Winters is survived by four children, the three who reside in La Grande and Mrs. Ruth Tasker, of California. A daughter, Mrs. Gladys Wheatley, passed away here last summer.

VERNON E. HALL

"Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens," so read Vernon E. Hall, the pastor of our church at La Grande on Sunday morning, March 2. And from this text took for his subject "The Religion that Dares." After preaching one of the most gripping and appealing sermons he had delivered in La Grande, he led the people in singing "O Jesus, I Have Promised" and lifted his hands in a tender appeal for protection and guidance. On Monday afternoon, March 3, he passed away.

Vernon E. Hall was born in South Elgin, Illinois, February 14, 1874, but spent most of his boyhood in eastern Iowa where his stepfather was a Methodist minister. He attended Cornell College, Iowa, and later graduated from the Upper Iowa University. After one year at Boston school of theology he was admitted to the Upper Iowa Conference of which he was a member until he came to Montana in 1910. He served the following charges in the North Montana Conference: Whitefish, Choteau, and Eureka. In 1923 he was transferred to the Idaho Conference, serving the church at Payette until 1928 when he became pastor at La Grande.

In 1900 he was married to Miss Kate Simonds at Fayette, Iowa. Six children came to their home, of whom two are deceased, Charles Vernon who died in infancy, and George Simonds who died at Choteau, Montana. He is survived by his widow and four children, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Daniels of Weiser, Idaho, Ruth Margaret, William Edward, and Patricia Ann at home.

The following tribute appeared in the La Grande Evening Observer: "Mr. Hall's devotion to home and family was beautiful. He loved music and flowers. Generosity and hospitality were his strong characteristics. He was a preacher of power and of great earnestness; his thinking was logical; his attitude toward life was wholesome; he was broadminded in his views and considerate of those who did not think as he did."

Reverend Forrest W. Werts of Billings, Montana, a very close friend of Reverend Hall, gives this tribute to his friend: "Vernon E. Hall was a man who to my mind rose so far above the mass of men that few really knew the rare elements which nature had so lavishly mixed in him. A keen mind, honestly facing each and every experience of life gave him an insight into values that few possess. A big heart that loved folks was hedged in by a reticence so pronounced that he never dreamed of his worth to others. His was a personality so calm and deep and mighty that its very poise sent soundings into the souls of those who fellowshiped with him. He was no surface soul for he dwelt in realms of thought so deep that there were few to keep him company. His was no veneer for he was genuine. He had no fitting fancies to be pleased by passing plaudits. He found mirth and joy and happiness in the love of his wife and family, in his service to those who were able to accept a super-service, and in his shackled hope that some day he would know Him."

Co-operation

Co-operation means working together with one's neighbor; it is the essence of progress in the modern communities of the West.

Members of all successful organizations realize the value of co-operation in their own organization—by that co-operation and united effort great things are accomplished.

That spirit prevails in the Dairymen's Co-operative Creamery of Boise Valley, which has expanded its co-operative effort to 2800 families in the Boise Valley. These producers know that co-operative effort has brought them a consistently greater return for their dairy products.

May we all renew our co-operative effort to the greater upbuilding of our respective communities, and profit by the experiences of others.

Everybody Needs . . . Business Training

A course at GREGG BUSINESS COLLEGE will help any young man or young woman to do a better job and live on a higher plane in any vocation he may choose.

JOHN WANAMAKER, Founder of America's Greatest Department Store: "In these days the young man or woman without business training stands little chance. A great, grand work is being done by the business colleges."

The "Law of Success" is based on the Golden Rule. It gives a clear conscience and is the only safe foundation for a successful career.

We guarantee positions to our graduates.

CHANCELLOR KENT, the Noted Divine: "Every young person should attend a first-class business college. No matter what the cost, it will prove the best possible investment."
